Notes:

We have a “blended” worship service because God is the God of all ages. This is reflected in the various parts of our worship service, and the variety of music.

“Blessed Be Your Name”- written by Matt and Beth Redman
A few weeks after 9/11, we wrote the worship song ‘Blessed be Your Name’. It wasn’t written consciously in response to those dark events, but no doubt being immersed in the spiritual and emotional climate of those days was an important factor in birthing it. Many people ask if there was a particular life event which triggered off the writing of this song, and in all truth the answer is no. It’s really a song born out of the whole of ‘life’, a realization that we will all face seasons of pain or unease. And in these seasons we will need to find our voice before God.

‘Glory to God Forever’ – written by Steve Fee and Vicky Beeching.
This song was featured on Vicky’s 3rd album released in 2010. Vicky has been writing songs since the age of 11. She grew up in the United Kingdom and while at Oxford, she studied under Brian Doerksen and Brenton Brown and recorded with Vineyard Records UK. She came to Nashville for a few years but decided to base her work out of the UK.

“Living for Jesus” - written by Thomas O. Chisholm, an ordained pastor and writer of more than 1200 hymns. His conversion took place at the age of twenty-seven under the ministry of Dr. Henry Clay Morrison, founder of Asbury College and Theological Seminary.

“Let Them See You” by JJ Weeks A lifetime is a long time to do anything. Yet, the four members of the JJ Weeks Band are certain they’ll spend the rest of their days making God known through their music. The JJ Weeks Band musically commits to telling the world about Jesus for as long as they can breathe.

Dear First Baptist family-

Thank you so much for your loving kindness and care to our mother over the last few years of her life. She loved the visits, candy, cards, gifts prayers and all of God's love that you showed to her. She truly thought of you all as family. Thank you for the flower that will be planted in her memory and for including her in your lives. She was blessed to have you all.

Many thanks and God bless you all, the family of Norma Slaughter
